

The Cochise Baptist Association (CBA) in rural Southern Arizona is prayerfully looking for an Associational Leader to our local church association.

We are looking for a leader who is not just a manager, but a builder. Someone with the gifts, skills and experience needed to take hold of a healthy organization and grow from there.

This position briefly includes, but is not all inclusive, the following requirements;

- To be a pastor to the pastors
- A Facilitator of our expressed desires;
 - o To help our churches grow God's Kingdom by networking and with our pastors and churches.
 - o Helping our churches develop mission, evangelism and discipleship opportunities & programs
 - o Meet with the pastors of the CBA on a regular basis
 - o To have some small church experience.
 - o Be available to supply the pulpit when needed
- Lead us to be encouragers to our fellow pastors and help us have closer relationships
- Assist churches with conflict resolution
- Help address the pressing issues facing our churches,
 - o i.e., dropping attendance rates and giving.
- To help us assist struggling pastors
 - o Financially/emotionally
- To maintain an intimate and growing relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ
